

You Know You've Been Wondering
Week 6 Group Discussion Notes
God is Good & God is Great

Leading Off:

If you could pinpoint the absolute BEST moment of your life, what would it be?

Scripture:

One thing God has spoken, two things have I heard: that you, O God, are strong, and that you, O Lord, are loving." Psalm 62:11-12

Discussion Questions:

"Most of what we need to know about God, we already know, we just need to remember."

1. Looking back over your life, in what ways has God been good to you?

If God only has all the power but His intentions for us aren't good, we ought to fear for our lives. And if God is only good, and if His intentions for us are only good but He lacks the power to provide and help, to rescue and sustain us, what good is He? Thank God He's both Good AND Great – with all the power in the world AND with more love for us than is humanly comprehensible!"

2. Which is easier to believe – that God is GOOD or that God is GREAT?
3. Why do you think it's so easy to "forget" or "lose sight" of Who God is?

In Exodus 2:14, God tells Moses, "I AM WHO I AM." Pastor Chad suggested another way to think of this is to say, "Whatever I need, God IS."

“On the cross, the goodness of God was proven once and for all.”

4. How does remembering what Christ accomplished on the cross prove God’s goodness toward us?
5. If God never does anything else for you but what He accomplished on the cross for you, is there anything else He could do or not do to cause you to question is goodness and love toward you?

One To Grow On (This weeks Growth Challenge):

*Yet this I call to mind and therefore I have hope: Because of the Lord’s great love we are not consumed for his compassions never fail. They are new every morning; great is your faithfulness. Lamentations 3:21-22

The discipline of “Remembering” is a discipline we see throughout the Scriptures. To pause and reflect – to intentionally remember and call to mind the goodness and faithfulness of God – is something the writers of Scripture practiced regularly during both good times and in times of trouble.

Spend the next few moments writing out at least 5 ways God has been good to you. You may find this list comes quickly and easily. Or, perhaps, it may take you a while. Either way, don’t stop until you’ve compiled a list of at least 5 ways God has been good to you in your life.

With a person in your group, share your list and pray for one another. Pray for the encouragement and comfort of the Holy Spirit in your lives. Pray that the Presence of God would surround you daily and bring to mind regularly ways He’s been active in your life.
